What We've Heard

Key Aspirations & Opportunities

- Create a memorial for Lincoln Hoad at the park.
- Enhance park amenities and facilities.
- Improve legibility, safety and visual appeal.
- Keep trees & open up visibility into the park.
- Create active and passive spaces for youths - consider females.
- Include features like a BMX track, pump track, full-size multipurpose court, and climbing play.
- Extend skate park function (less advanced & junior).
- Create opportunities and spaces for youth and community activation.
- More rest areas with plenty of shade and comfortable seating - hang out zones.
- Incorporate family friendly features (picnic & BBQ).
- Provide spaces for younger children to play safely.
- Improve (formalise) park accessibility for all.
- Diplock park as a western gateway to Dalby reinforcing the Dalby identity.
- Connections to Thomas Jack Park (complementary play experiences).

Key Challenges

- Accommodate a wider variety of uses and facilities
- Interface with Warrego Highway
- Safe access from school and surrounding areas
- Current reputation for antisocial behaviours
- Creating an inclusive space attractive to a variety of uses

Design Drivers

01

Inclusive and Safe

Accommodate people of all ages and backgrounds with recreational options that mix both active and passive experiences, ensuring social interaction and enjoyment for everyone.

02

A Place for Youths

Foster a sense of ownership among Dalby's youths through dedicated spaces and community events that actively involve teenagers, encouraging their participation and use.

03

Active Recreation Focus

Prioritise youth activity and recreation through a mix of both active and passive recreational facilities, providing opportunities for physical activity as well as spaces for relaxation and socialisation.

04

Flexible and Versatile

Design flexible spaces and amenities capable of accommodating diverse activities and interests, catering to a variety of different experiences.

Vision

"Diplock Park: Dalby's vibrant youthful heart"

a safe place for all, offering a dynamic range of activities and events, where every youth feels at home.
